

FALL 1947
(OUT OF TOWN)

"The Pirates of Penzance"

or

"The Slave of Duty"

---

E. BROCK GRIFFITH, Conductor

Staged by KATHERINE EDSON

DORIS PARVIN, Accompanist

---

RICHARD, a Pirate King	John Strangfeld
SAMUEL, his Lieutenant	Roland Mills
FREDERICK, a Pirate Apprentice	Alfred Brothers
MAJOR-GENERAL STANLEY	Rowland Nelson
EDWARD, Sergeant of Police	George Sharp
MABEL, General Stanley's Youngest Daughter	Katherine Edson
EDITH	Mary Finnegan
KATE		Joan Allgor
ISABEL
RUTH, a Piratical Maid-of-all-Work	Miriam Hawelka

PIRATES—David Cramer, Arthur Henke, William Richards, Gustav Schmitt, Roger Ruhren, Ezio Salto, John Wingate, Richard Bogert.

POLICE—Bjorn Bolstad, Edward Strangfeld, Woodrow Marcus, Harold Adamson, Richard Lawrenson, Richard Leyendecker, John Edson.

GENERAL STANLEY'S DAUGHTERS—Jeannette Strom, Mary Brown, Edith Frederick, Doris Reid, Elsa Sharp, Irene Hofstetter, Marguerite Dierman, Grace Viviano, Lois Hofmann, Ruth Dickens, Dorothy Baer, Florence Parrasch, Elizabeth Van Dyk, Beatrice Tremper, Sally Schober, Kathleen Sikkema.

TIME: 1877

ACT I—A rocky seashore on the coast of Cornwall.

ACT II—A ruined chapel on General Stanley's estate.

ORCHESTRA

Robert Pollock, Theresa Totzauer, Charlotte Gilbert, Keith Mitchell, Bertram Saltzer, Alfred Wolf

NOTE: The following performers were alternates: Richard Bogert (Samuel), John Wingate (Frederic), John Edson (Sergeant), Kathleen Sikkema (Mabel).